

The Evening Standard

Published Daily, except Sundays, by William Glasmann.

ADVERTISING RATES

| Advertisement shall run..... | PRICE PER INCH EACH DAY. | | | | |
|--|--------------------------|-------------|------------|-------------|-----------------|
| | First Week | Second Week | Third Week | Fourth Week | Over Four Weeks |
| Change each issue..... | 25c | 20c | 15c | 10c | 5c |
| Ad. to run twice without change..... | 15c | 10c | 5c | | |
| Ad. to run three times without change..... | 10c | 5c | | | |
| Ad. to run six times without change..... | 5c | | | | |

Classified want ads one cent per word each day; no first insertion less than 25 cents, or 75c per line per week. Random References, 25c per line first insertion; 20c each subsequent insertion; 15c per line per week, or $3.00 per line per month with change once each week. Local Readers, 15c per line first insertion; 10c per line each subsequent insertion, or 50c per line per week.

CHURCHES, SECRET SOCIETIES, and Charitable Institutions, $1.50 cents per line either Random References or Locals. No heads allowed in Randoms.

THE RETAIL PRICE ON FLOUR COMES DOWN.

A gentleman called us up by 'phone and said: "You are right about the price of flour being less than $3.25 per hundred in Ogden. I bought 100 pounds for $2.85 from Domoto & Co., on Twenty-fifth street, Ogden, Utah. It is Peery Bros.' best flour, too."

Another gentleman, who made the rounds of the stores last evening, said all the "trust" stores sell flour at $3.20 and $3.25; that the Smith grocery store sells the best flour—Peery Bros. and the Ogden Milling & Elevator Co.—for $1.50 per sack, or $2.95 per 100 pounds.

It will now be in order for the trust to promptly discipline the Smith Grocery Co. and Domoto & Co.

It is a shame for the trust to lose courage just because The Standard is exposing the methods employed by the trust. What is the matter with the Grocers' Trust, anyhow? Have the members of the trust cold feet? Stand up and have the wholesalers boycott Smith and Domoto & Co. Don't allow The Standard to stop you from enforcing your regular rules. Please do not disappoint us just when we are ready to act promptly with your combine. Start the boycott immediately against the offending Smith and Domoto & Co.

Why does the trust allow these two men to snap their fingers in the face of the combine?

ON THIS THANKSGIVING DAY.

- Let us be thankful—
- That the grocer can read this column today without frowning.
- That those who have turkey can enjoy the delicacy; and—
- That those who have no turkey can rest assured that they have wisely refrained from indulging in a very expensive luxury.
- That the mayor and city councilmen are allowed to go on their own recognizance until Dec. 4.
- That when the sheriff's deputies, with old man Certiorari, met the police force there was no bloodshed.
- That there is promise of the football season ending in Utah without a fatality or a broken bone.
- That word has been received which bids us hope U. P. Headquarters will abide with us forever.
- That the farmers have money to spend and later in the season may be induced to part with some of their wealth.
- That the health of Ogden is good and contagious diseases are being conquered.
- That, though the sky is overcast, this is balmy weather.
- That Prosperity is abroad in the land and Ogden has been touched with the old gent's magic hand.

WAS GAMBLING STOPPED?

What is all this talk of gambling and police raids and arrests of gamblers? The people of Ogden have labored under the delusion that there was no gambling, that gaming had been abolished and the gamblers banished, but suddenly the atmosphere is surcharged with gambling potentialities.

After all, that was a clever pre-election dodge, the "closing" of the gambling dens. And what a beautiful display of awakened conscience, after nearly two years of forgetfulness.

The present city administration, with one month left, evidently is resolved to set off a great pyrotechnical display, with which to dazzle the eyes of all beholders.

Up to the last month, the last day, the last hour and the last minute, the present administration is going to play politics, even if to do so, it is necessary to reverse the policy which has marked the course of the administration during the other twenty-three months of its existence.

AN EXAMPLE OF TRUE LOVE.

The life of David A. De Armond had crowded into it all the romance and tragedy that can come to one man. De Armond was a brilliant student, successful lawyer, triumphant politician, devoted husband, magnetic orator, leader in Congress, and finally he was burned to death while struggling to save the little boy who clung to him when the smoke and flames swept through the room of his home in which they had slept. The end was awful, with its tongues of fire, and with the cries of the child, urging his uncle to save him, and yet it was an heroic end in which the devotion of the boy and his uncle and the uncle's desperate efforts to prove equal to the faith reposed in him, made beautiful the close of a most remarkable career.

LARGE HOTEL FOR OGDEN.

There is a strong effort being made to build a large hotel in this city. The plan is to have the business men and others subscribe to a fund with which to erect the structure.

Hotel accommodations are said to be inadequate, the present houses being crowded to capacity.

A $200,000 hotel, as contemplated, would add to the prestige of this city.

WHEN A MAN IS GREAT ENOUGH.

A man who is great enough to be himself, evolves enemies who hang upon his coat-tails and eternally cry "Whoa!" Theirs is a death clutch, and not until he is dead and they are dead does the yelping of the pack cease. That is what Elbert Hubbard, one of the greatest of writers, says.

TRAINS CARRY FOOTBALL PLAYERS AND ROOTERS

The Union Depot this morning had the appearance of being in a typical college town with the arrival and departure of the trains bearing football teams and rooters for the Ogden and Salt Lake games today.

Early this morning the trains arriving at the Union depot from Salt Lake City brought Salt Lake High school counts for anything, they will certainly do the business and carry home the scalp of the "U's." The college band of sixteen pieces accompanied the team. During the few minutes at the Union depot the band rendered a few college selections which were appreciated by the travelers passing through the city. A large delegation of boys from the Ogden High school, with boys from the Salt Lake High school, were present and gave the "Aggies" a parting cheer.

The game at the Fair Grounds, between Ogden and Salt Lake teams, promises to be one of the hardest fought games seen on the local gridiron in many years. Both teams have been preparing for the struggle for a number of weeks and are in splendid condition and when they meet it will be a contest worthy of attending. The game is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock.

TRACING THE MAN WHO DESTROYED AN AUTOMOBILE

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Sheriff Thomas Grant of Lake county, Ind., and detectives, Conick and Calhane, of the central station, last night learned, they believe, the identity of the man who hatched a $5,000 automobile to pieces and hid parts of the machine on the farm of Mrs. Christine Jostedt near Lamotte, Indiana, and hauled the three-ton miles and pitched them into the Kankakee river.

This man, it is believed, was one of the four passengers of the car on its mysterious night trip from Chicago, October 23. The other persons in the car included two men and a young woman.

S. R. Smalley, who says he is owner of the dismantled machine, refused to tell the police more of the trip which he asserts "friends of his" took down into Indiana, where the machine was wrecked.

"It was just a 'joy ride' and the machine got smashed," he explained. "The automobile was taken by a friend of mine, and he had an accident. He paid me for it and that is all there is to it. I know that no one was injured in the accident, and I shall tell no one who was in the automobile—not even the police."

Smalley said the man who had the machine was wealthy, and had paid him $4,750 for breaking it up. "There's a motive deeper than mere accident for the destruction of that valuable machine," the sheriff said, after he had come to Chicago last evening to confer with city detectives. "The machine was left at the farm, when it was taken the morning of October 24."

It was said last night that the police had learned the identity of the chauffeur who drove the automobile from Chicago and that a close watch is being kept on him to prevent him from leaving the city.

WORD FROM THE GUNBOATS NOW IN NICARAGUAN WATERS

Washington, Nov. 25.—The state and navy departments got in touch with Nicaragua overnight through the gunboat Des Moines which has been plying between Port Limon, on the gulf coast of Costa Rica, and Greytown, the southern port of Nicaragua of the same coast.

Captain Shipley, commander of the Des Moines, reported briefly upon the conditions on the east coast of Nicaragua, which is entirely in the possession of the insurgent forces, with the exception of Greytown proper, where General Toledo of President Zelaya's army is hemmed in by land and sea by the revolutionists.

The only American warship on the west coast of Nicaragua is the Victrola, lying off Corinto, but no work has come from that ship in the last two days, interrupted telegraphic communication being the only explanation offered. It has got to be a matter of common note that the telegraph falls in the most perfect weather when the United States government tries to communicate with one of its diplomatic or consular agents in times of revolution in Central America.

That the explanation to be made by the Nicaraguan government of the conditions under which the two Americans, Grace and Cavan, were released will be unsatisfactory to the state department can safely be predicted. From any point the official view is that the men were free from the charge of being spies and were entitled to be regarded as prisoners of war, and therefore not subject to that penalty, or even if they were captured in Costa Rica, as reported, the act was in clear violation of the Costa Rican sovereignty, and may easily involve Costa Rica in war with the Zelaya government if the American government turns to Costa Rica for redress.

LUCKY RUNAWAY FOR THIS YOUNG COUPLE

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Policeman William O. Freeman, while in a parade last Decoration day, ran out of the line and saved Miss Margaret Smoot from being trampled under the feet of a runaway horse. Soon after they became sweethearts and yesterday were married in the office of Inspector Hunt at Woodlawn police station, Municipal Judge Frey performing the ceremony. Inspector Hunt and his secretary, John Hogan, were the witnesses.

"I always disliked marching on holidays," said Freeman after the ceremony was performed, "but I guess it is all right for that parade won me a wife."

TURKEY FOR THE SHERIFF FROM TENNESSEE WHO IS IN JAIL

Washington, Nov. 25.—That Captain Jos. P. Shipp, former sheriff of Chattanooga, and his companions who are serving joint sentences inflicted by the supreme court of the United States for contempt of that high tribunal, have a legion of friends in their Tennessee home was attested today.

These friends saw to it that the former sheriff and his fellow Tennesseans were provided with a turkey dinner of lavish proportions. Warden McKee was asked by wire if such a dinner could be provided. He said yes, and instructions accordingly were sent to the Tennessee penitentiary that a bonafide Thanksgiving dinner was supplied.

BOY MISTAKEN FOR A DUCK AND KILLED.

Broken Arrow, Okla., Nov. 25.—Mistaking the head of Pearl House, 14 years old, for the head of a duck, John Boatwright shot and killed the boy when hunting near here yesterday. Each was hunting ducks and did not know of the others presence.

WANT ADS BRING BIG RESULTS.

JUST FOR FUN

Duplicate.
Dejected Youth—I would like to return this engagement ring I purchased here a few days ago.
Jeweler—Didn't it suit the young lady?
Dejected Youth—Yes; but another young man had already given her one just like it, and I would like to exchange it for a wedding present.—Tit-Bits.

Another Ceremony Necessary.
The young married man had been on the road about a year. He had just told his wife that the firm had given him a position in the store, and he would not have to travel any more.
"Oh, won't that be fine, George!" she exclaimed. "Now, we'll be married again and settle down."

Explaining to Jones.
"I say, Jones, dine with me at the house tonight, will you?"
"Certainly, with pleasure. Will your wife expect me?"
"No; that's the beauty of it. We had a quarrel this morning, and I want to make her mad."—Peekskill Palladium.

Offset.
"I must warn you, dearest," he said, "that after we are married you will very likely find me inclined to be arbitrary and dictatorial in my manner."
"No matter," she replied, cheerfully. "I won't pay the slightest attention to what you say."—Presbyterian Standard.

Why.
Why is it that people sit t-h—i—s—w—d—y
In the car we miss,
And in the car we finally catch
Are crowded like this?
—Lippincott's.

Getting Even.
Miss Passay—What a lovely gown you have on! But haven't I seen it before?
Miss Tattlebush—No, I think not. You see I've only worn it at very smart affairs this season.—Brooklyn Life.

The Proposal.
He (nervously)—Er—er—Margaret—er—er—there's something has been troubling on my lips for the past two months.
She—Yes, so I see. Why, don't you shave it off?—Princeton Tiger.

No Happy Medium.
"What's worrying you?"
"Motor cars," answered Mr. Chuggins. "It either goes so fast that I'm held up for speeding or so slow that I'm warned not to obstruct traffic."—Washington Star.

Training.
The pugilist must demonstrate
Before he starts a fight,
By long and arduous debate
That both his lungs are right.
—Washington Star.

Very Chilling.
"What is haunter?"
"That's what some salesladies display when you ask to see something cheaper."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

Perhaps It's Mostly Hair.
"Is your boy getting ahead at college?"
"Yes; a big one."—Boston Transcript.

A Patient Waiter.
Lawrence J. Anhalt, business manager for David Warfield, brings in from the road the story of the manager of a thrilling melodrama, in one scene of which a husband enters one door an instant after an admirer of his wife has made his exit from another. During a run of a week in one city the manager noticed that one man, obviously from the country, went in every night. Finally he remarked to the manager that he must enjoy the performance.

"Tolerably so," remarked the playgoer, "but some night that husband is going to catch that other feller, and I want to be on hand to see what happens."—Lippincott's.

Would Have the Egg.
A farmer was selling some eggs to a road hotel man. The price was 40 cents a dozen, and there was one egg over four dozen. The farmer demanded three cents for the egg. Landlord wanted it "thrown in with the bargain." "No," finally the landlord said: "Well, I'll take the egg and treat to a drink." "All right said the farmer. When asked what he would have he replied: "Well, I allus drink sherry with an egg in it." "And then they say farmers buy gold bricks!"—Suburban Life.

Not Comforted.
"Yes, it must be a terrible thing to go through life without your limb. But you must remember it will be restored to you in the next world."
"I know it will, mum, but dat don't encourage me, for it was cut off when I was a baby, an it won't come with in a couple of feet of de ground when it's restored."—Milwaukee Journal.

Difficult.
In developing the idea of truthfulness, a teacher asked the question, "What is the best thing in the world to do, and at the same time the hardest?"
A little girl raised her hand timidly.
"Well, Emma?"
"To get married."—Harper's Magazine.

She Made a Name for Him.
Mrs. Benham—Many a man owes his success in life to his wife.
Benham—Yes, Adam would never have been heard from if Eve hadn't given him the apple.—Smart Set.

Never Again.
"Why don't you give your wife an allowance?"
"I tried that once, and she spent it before I could borrow it back."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Needed It.
Johnny—Paw asked an awfully long blessing at the table today, didn't he?
Dick—Yes; you know he had a turkey to carve and he ain't very good at it.—Chicago Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA STORM.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—Although blizzards prevailed in this city and vicinity today, the severe wind and sleet storm which held this section in its grasp yesterday and last night had

When Thanksgiving comes with its feasting
Though outside the snowflakes may whirl
We leisurely stroll to the kitchen
And look for the old-fashioned girl,
She is not the sweetest and stylish dresser
But she in our eyes is a treasure, God bless her.

While others are pounding the patient piano
She toys with a fork and a knife,
A sight that looks bright to the man who is wanting
A charming and practical wife,
And words, feeble words will not do for expressing
The picture she makes when she mixes the dressing.

TABERNACLE SERVICES TODAY

The Tabernacle was filled this morning at 11 o'clock, when the Thanksgiving services opened with the choir singing "Hosannah," followed by the invocation by Bishop Taylor.

There were several musical numbers before President Morris began his eloquent address upon "Thanksgiving."

Mr. Morris said it has been the custom in all ages and by all people to set aside a day or days on which to offer thanks for bounteous harvests or for prosperity in one way or another, but the thing for which the most fervent thanks should be given is adversity, for by and through adversity men and women have found their greatest development, and because of it the world has gained its greatest heroes.

Benediction was by Bishop McQuarrie.

IT DESTROYED THEIR HUNGER

Senator Tillman was talking about Thanksgiving dinners.
"At a dinner in the country," he said, "the turkey was very large—large enough in fact to feed easily a party of thirty persons seated around the table."
"As the farmer host carved the huge bird, sixty eyes watched him hungrily. But the bright look of hunger in those sixty eyes was succeeded by a dull look of horror when Tommy, the farmer's youngest child, piped loud and shrill:
"Say, ma, that's the old sore-headed turkey, ain't it?"

A TRADE SECRET DISCLOSED.

Lecop, the detective, smoothed thoughtfully the head of the dead dog.
"You suspect, madam," he said, "your right-hand neighbor, because Fido's barking would not let him sleep. You also suspect your left-hand neighbor because Fido once nipped him slightly on the ankle. But your suspicions are wrong. Those men are too honorable to poison a registered dog."
The great detective closed absently the half-open eyes of the defunct animal.
"It is the dealers, the dog dealers," said he, "upon whom your suspicions should be directed. At this pre-holiday season," madam, "dog dealers all over the world send out emissaries with balls of chopped liver and powdered glass, with cutlets of mutt dipped in prussic acid, and with cakes powdered with arsenic or paris green. These titbits are fed to the

WANTS SPEEDING LAWS.

New York, Nov. 24.—Aroused by a peculiarly atrocious instance of disregard of human life by a chauffeur, the police commissioner today issued a call for a mass meeting to urge legislative action. Alice Moberg was struck down by a touring car last night and when the driver found her body clogged the wheels he stopped to jolt the machine free and then made off at high speed.
In his statement, Commissioner Baker says: "It is time for a radical change in the law regarding speeding. It is time for the citizens of New York to head a mass meeting and protest to the legislature against this slaughter."

LAW'S DECREE SUITS ROCKEFELLER

New York, Nov. 24.—William Rockefeller a director of the Standard Oil company gave a different color today to the appeal, which Mortimer Elliott, the company's general solicitor, had announced is to be taken from the decree of the United States circuit court.

Legal affairs of the company, Mr. Rockefeller said, would continue to remain in the hands of its legal department but as a layman he wished, to indicate that his own attitude and that of his associates had its share of altruism.

"It seems to me desirable," he said, "not only for my own interests and those of my associates, but for the public at large and for all other great business ventures, that the Sherman act should be finally set beyond contention as interpreted by the supreme court of the United States. Undoubtedly our case will be appealed and for this reason.

"I am not a lawyer and cannot discuss the decree of the circuit court, but Mr. Elliott has said that an appeal will be taken and the matter is entirely in the hands of counsel of the company.

FAVORITE PILLOW MATERIALS

The best pillows for general use are those of burial, which in the last few years have grown in high favor. These come in all colors and some are braided in conventional designs.

One pretty style is of olive green with a pretty design in brown, tan and yellow, outlined with a black border. The colors of one of this kind will rather correspond with the average porch furniture.

Pillows of oblong shapes are newer than those of square proportions. One particularly good idea is of Russian crash with a stenciled design in blue, two shades of green and a reddish brown. The border and back are of blue burial, which makes a most attractive cushion.

NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM FOR CHICAGO

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Official action toward the consummation of the proposed new lighting system for the city, under which it is planned to have every street in Chicago lighted with electricity furnished by the drainage canal, was begun yesterday by Chairman Snow of the council finance committee. In a letter addressed to President McCormick of the sanitary district, Mr. Snow asked that a committee from the drainage board be appointed to meet with the finance committee and endeavor to work out some plan under which a system can be financed by the drainage board.

After sending the letter to Mr. McCormick, Alderman Snow said that in the even no arrangements could be made with the drainage board to finance the proposition, the city at the coming spring session will be asked to approve a bond issue of from $2,000,000 to $2,500,000 to construct the system desired.

AMERICAN GOODS WILL BE BOYCOTTED BY CHILEANS

Santiago, Nov. 25.—The attitude of the United States government, in the matter of the Alsop claim, held by the United States against Chile, is producing an effect upon the business of the country. Chilean buyers are canceling orders for American products, pending a decision in the case.

Iquique, Chile, Nov. 25.—The popular feeling here is that the Alsop claim of the United States against Chile is unjust. A public meeting will be held, probably on Sunday, at which it will be proposed to boycott American imports unless the United States desists from pressing the claim.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 25.—The football teams of the Universities of Washington and Oregon played here today on the university campus for the championship of the Pacific northwest. The weather was cold and showery. Up to today neither team has been defeated during the season. Last year's contest between the colleges was won by Washington.

DEATH OF CONGRESSMAN.

Ypsilanti, Mich., Nov. 25.—Captain Edward P. Allen, Democratic congressman from the Second Michigan district from 1886 to 1890, died suddenly today.

LAW'S DECREE SUITS ROCKEFELLER

New York, Nov. 24.—William Rockefeller a director of the Standard Oil company gave a different color today to the appeal, which Mortimer Elliott, the company's general solicitor, had announced is to be taken from the decree of the United States circuit court.

Legal affairs of the company, Mr. Rockefeller said, would continue to remain in the hands of its legal department but as a layman he wished, to indicate that his own attitude and that of his associates had its share of altruism.

"It seems to me desirable," he said, "not only for my own interests and those of my associates, but for the public at large and for all other great business ventures, that the Sherman act should be finally set beyond contention as interpreted by the supreme court of the United States. Undoubtedly our case will be appealed and for this reason.

"I am not a lawyer and cannot discuss the decree of the circuit court, but Mr. Elliott has said that an appeal will be taken and the matter is entirely in the hands of counsel of the company.

FAVORITE PILLOW MATERIALS

The best pillows for general use are those of burial, which in the last few years have grown in high favor. These come in all colors and some are braided in conventional designs.

One pretty style is of olive green with a pretty design in brown, tan and yellow, outlined with a black border. The colors of one of this kind will rather correspond with the average porch furniture.

Pillows of oblong shapes are newer than those of square proportions. One particularly good idea is of Russian crash with a stenciled design in blue, two shades of green and a reddish brown. The border and back are of blue burial, which makes a most attractive cushion.

NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM FOR CHICAGO

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Official action toward the consummation of the proposed new lighting system for the city, under which it is planned to have every street in Chicago lighted with electricity furnished by the drainage canal, was begun yesterday by Chairman Snow of the council finance committee. In a letter addressed to President McCormick of the sanitary district, Mr. Snow asked that a committee from the drainage board be appointed to meet with the finance committee and endeavor to work out some plan under which a system can be financed by the drainage board.

After sending the letter to Mr. McCormick, Alderman Snow said that in the even no arrangements could be made with the drainage board to finance the proposition, the city at the coming spring session will be asked to approve a bond issue of from $2,000,000 to $2,500,000 to construct the system desired.

AMERICAN GOODS WILL BE BOYCOTTED BY CHILEANS

Santiago, Nov. 25.—The attitude of the United States government, in the matter of the Alsop claim, held by the United States against Chile, is producing an effect upon the business of the country. Chilean buyers are canceling orders for American products, pending a decision in the case.

Iquique, Chile, Nov. 25.—The popular feeling here is that the Alsop claim of the United States against Chile is unjust. A public meeting will be held, probably on Sunday, at which it will be proposed to boycott American imports unless the United States desists from pressing the claim.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 25.—The football teams of the Universities of Washington and Oregon played here today on the university campus for the championship of the Pacific northwest. The weather was cold and showery. Up to today neither team has been defeated during the season. Last year's contest between the colleges was won by Washington.

DEATH OF CONGRESSMAN.

Ypsilanti, Mich., Nov. 25.—Captain Edward P. Allen, Democratic congressman from the Second Michigan district from 1886 to 1890, died suddenly today.

FINE WEATHER FOR DAY.

Washington, Nov. 24.—Thanksgiving day promises to be crisp and clear in most sections of the country—typical Thanksgiving weather. According to weather forecasts, the temperature generally will be a little above the seasonable average except in the lower lake region and the Atlantic and Gulf states.

There is a promise of snows and rains over the Michigan Peninsula, but further west there will be declines in temperatures. Wyoming, Montana and the Dakotas are promised snow and falls in the mercury.

Clearing weather has followed the Atlantic coast storm in the coast states, but a disturbance is expected in the upper Mississippi valley. Elsewhere in the eastern half of the country the weather will be generally fair on Thanksgiving day.